1. Before the fall of Shanghai, a representative of Prince TE contacted LO Lung-chi and leaders of the Kuomintang Revolutionary Committee (KMTRC) in Shanghai. They told him that both the China Democratic League and the KMTRC are in full accord with Prince TE's political plans, and that they would support his autonomy movement. They also advised him to get in touch with their representatives in the Northwest.
2. Prince TE's representative left Canton for Lanchow about 1 June 1949.
